Our History

The Sartin Family has over 60 years of Automotive expertise working in stores owned by RC Alexander Automotive, Ray Danner's Neill-Sandler Automotive, Newton Motor Group, America's Car-Mart, and Terry Taylor's AMSI. Our experience includes implementing a Buying Program utilized by local Associations at a 3 store 7 Brand operation.

More knowledge was gained working with high profile corporations such as Wells Fargo, Westlake Financial Services, and Protective Asset Protection. Our founders also spent over 6 years on the Board of a NIADA state affiliate. We currently promote an agricultural buying program used by dealerships nationwide.

Our background operating the Holding Company Tennessee Dealer News LLC along with first class mentors and partners is what has driven the success of The Dealer Alliance. All of this facilitated the launch of our Union Auto Network Program. We will continue to build on our past success and provide great service to our partners.

Dealer Benefits

Union Auto Network connects your business to a group of over 300,000+ Union members and their families statewide, with access to those within your specific region.

- Union members are usually highly qualified and ready-to-buy customers.
- Your store will become one of a select group of dealers that value Union members and welcomes their business.
- We will provide your store with what CDK Global classifies as a Low Funnel customer.
- Each transaction creates an opportunity for factory income, doc fee, F&I earnings, inventory acquisition, and fixed operations revenue.
- Your store will be included in all UAN print, media, and internet advertising.
- Your store's inventory and service department will gain public website exposure on the ShopOnlineCars.com platform.
- Dealers enrolled will have access to discounts from our Auction Partners.
- This group's members can provide you referrals to non-union member prospects based on their experience.

PLEASE NOTE:

Union members are a unique group of individuals unlike any other member network you may encounter. Union members band together in solidarity to achieve one goal within the workplace. Your store may have access to roughly 10-15 local Unions that each service 100-1000+ members. One member's experience within your dealership, whether good or bad, will be shared with other members within the local. This plays a role in your reputation amongst the membership, their families, and close friends in your designated area. Therefore, you can be valued as a trusted dealer that welcomes and values the business of Union members and their families. You can also create an unfavorable reputation amongst this same population if quality service is not a priority when handling our members.
